SECRETARY DOUGLAS BACK FROM ST. LOUIS

Note of Extreme Optimism Is Sounded at National Chamber of Commerce Meeting.

SEES NEW DEMAND FOR OIL

Large Merchant Marine Will In crease Need of Oklahoma Orude, He Says.

Clarence B Douglas secretary of the Tulsa chamber of commerce, re-turned Thursday from St. Louis where he was in attendance at the national convention of the affiliated chamber of commerce organizations. In an interview with a World reporter Thursday afternoon the colone; told of the convention as follows:

The outstanding feature of the meeting of the chamber of commerce of the United States at St.

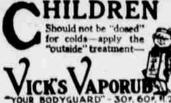

There were many other interesting addresses at the convention and the by products but emphasizes the products saying the Paderal Reserve Law, of which he was the father precided the possibility of a panific and having been tested by the shock of war seems to have solved the financial like of this nation. He was optimistic in the extreme and profuse in his expressions of appreciation of the sid the business men of the country, and the hankers especially, have given the government during the crisis through the sid. There were many other interesting addresses at the convention and through them all was the note of optimism; of co-operation; of service to the nation, and of continued development; expansion of business to the four quarters of the glebe, and unprecedented prosperity which this nation has just passed. He complimented the co-operative spirit, the unselfush patriolism and the valuable assistance rendered by the business men and said that no the product of the country and the valuable assistance rendered by the business men and said that no the business men and said that no nation need fear the future which has as its representative citizenship the type of Americans whose finest attributes had been developed by the Compliments Organized Labor.

"Secretary Reaffeld of the depart-ment of commerce in his speech said he faced the future with absolute confidence prosperity for the coun-try. He compliments not only the confidence prosperity for the country. He compliments not only the great commercial leaders of the nation, who have handled the business situation so well, but likewise complimented organized labor for the patriotism the organization has displayed. He laid special stress on the evolution of business methods and the improvement in the business ethics of the great financial and commercial concerns of the nation, and announced that the necessary laws must be enacted to keep pace with the progressive spirit of the age. He said he could see no cloud on the horizon for the business interests of this country and anticipated continued prosperity now that the nation's people had come to know each other and better understand each others problems, "Of especial interest to this section of the country" said Mr. Douglias, was the address of Chairman Hurley of the Ship Building Emergency Fleet Corporation. Chairman Hurley said the merchant Marine of America had come to stay and that while we maintend the highest rates of wages.

chant Marine of America had come to stay and that while we maintained the highest rates of wages and gave our sailors the best food thereby increasing the expense of operation, we made it up in service rendered and the expeditiously handled cargoes and getting in and Increase Oil Demand. Chairman Hurley said that the fu-ture of the merchant marine was to a very considerable extent an oil proposition; that the oil burners proposition; that the oil nurners would solve the problem of the excess employes in the boiler rooms and that the new merchant marine of the nation would depend largely on oil for propulsion. He emphasized the importance of the developm Tell How They Made Event One of Great Happiness.

In every part of the land there are women who tell how, through the application of Mother's Friend, they application of Mother's Friend, they entirely avoided the suffering usually incident to motherhood. They relate in no uncertain terms how from its use the days were made bright and cheerful and the nights caim and restful, how the cruis was passed without the usual suffering experienced when nature is unaided, and how they preserved their health and strength to devote it to the rearing of their children and to the things life holds for them.

holds for them. Mother's Friend is a most penetrating remedy, prepared repectant mothers from a formula of a noted phreician. Strain upon the ligaments is avoided, and instead of a period of discomfort and constant dread it is a season of calm repose. The hours at the crisis are less and Mother's Friend chables the mother to retain her natural grave, and her with its not cracked and does not be skin is not cracked and does not be
